Contractor Injury

On Wednesday, 03/06/24, an electrical contractor was working on wiring in the Waukesha County Jail. In the process of completing the work, the 19-year-old contractor received non-life-threatening burns to his face. The contractor was transported to a local hospital for further treatment. The incident did not compromise any security operations in the jail and all operations are continuing as normal. There is no threat to the public, inmates, visitors, or employees working in the jail.
