Please join us as we celebrate the life and message of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. during our 5th annual Middle School Leadership Day. This interactive workshop will encourage attendees to explore the concept of civility and the impact it can have on their lives at school and at home. The presentation, activities, and luncheon are all provided at no cost thanks to the generous support of the WCTC Student Government Association. For more information on this year's guest presenter, visit www.jeffyalden.com.
