

Press Release

Contact: Rebecca Mattano
Phone: 262-896-8014

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Date: July 9, 2013

Waukesha, WI – Composting specialist Meribeth Sullivan, from the Waukesha County Department of Parks and Land Use – Land Resources Division, will be conducting two free composting and soils workshops at the New Berlin and Waukesha Public Libraries in July.

Part of the national library summer reading theme “Dig Into Reading”, the workshops will focus on introducing the concepts of home composting; including what is compostable, what equipment is needed and techniques to keep the compost working all year long. Attendees will also learn about applications of the compost as both a soil amendment and as a natural fertilizer.

New Berlin Library will be hosting the workshop on Monday, July 22 and Waukesha Library will be hosting on Wednesday, July 24. Both workshops are from 6:30 p.m. until 7:30 p.m.

For more information, visit waukeshacounty.gov/composting or call 262-896-8300.

###