

Turn Over a New Leaf

Find out how to handle large amounts of leaves this fall without burning, raking, piling, or dragging. These easy and efficient methods will keep your lawn looking good and improve air quality while saving time and money. Learn yard management techniques such as quick leaf composting and mulching to improve soil. Attendees will also take home a “recipe” for big pile leaf composting.

Location: Retzer Nature Center

October 6 – 10:00-11:00am – Register (262-548-7801) by October 4