Waukesha, WI – The Waukesha County Board of Supervisors will hold a public hearing on the proposed closure of Wanaki Golf Course on Wednesday, September 25 at the Waukesha County Expo Center Arena.

The hearing will begin at 6 p.m. with the Director of Parks and Land Use Dale Shaver providing a short presentation on county golf course operations. “The County Board values the input of Waukesha County residents and we hope to hear from you as we go through the 2020 budget process,” said Chairman Decker. “When the board begins deliberating on the 2020 budget we will be weighing how we fund county priorities like public safety and transportation while also being fiscally responsible in how we fund quality of life amenities that make Waukesha County a great place to live.”
