Plane slides off runway at Crites Field

On Friday, February 24, 2017, at approximately 6:48 p.m., the Waukesha County Sheriff's Office along with the City of Waukesha Fire Department responded to a plane that slid off the runway at Crites Field. Upon arrival, Deputies observed a 1979 Cessna 340 Twin Prop plane with substantial damage on the left side. The pilot, a 55-year-old woman from Sun Prairie, who was the sole occupant in the plane, was able to walk away from the accident with no injuries. It is believed the accident occurred as a result of the icy weather conditions. The FAA has been notified. This incident remains under investigation by the FAA and the Waukesha County Sheriff's Office.
