Easter Sunday Threat

The Waukesha County Sheriff's Office is actively investigating a threat to local churches. A written threat was sent through the United States Postal Service by an individual purporting to be Joseph A. Jakubowski, a wanted fugitive. Jakubowski is currently being sought in a joint local, state, and federal taskforce seeking his apprehension on a number of charges and threats of violence in the Rock County, WI area.

The written threat is directed at unspecified churches in the Sussex area, threatening unspecified violence on Easter Sunday.

At this time, while the investigation continues, we are unable to substantiate the threat nor its author. The letter is being forwarded for analysis and the authenticity is in question. We ask that all citizens of Waukesha County be vigilant and report any suspicious activity. This information is being disseminated as a precaution in the interest of public safety.

The Waukesha County Sheriff's Office has added additional resources to this investigation and is working closely with churches in the Sussex area to review safety
