Release

May 8, 2017

The Waukesha County Sheriff's Department participated in a multi-agency operation called, "Friendly Neighbors". The focus was to conduct sex offender compliance checks of those individuals who were not currently on supervision and ensure they were in compliance with the sex offender registry. Other participating agencies were the United States Marshals Service, Wisconsin Department of Corrections, and the City of Waukesha Police Department.

On May 3, 2017, 115 compliance checks were completed in Waukesha County, including the City of Waukesha, all were found to be in compliance of the registry at this time.
