Building Bridges, Creating Impact: Waukesha County's First-Ever Community Health Partner Summit

(WAUKESHA, WI) – On Tuesday, November 11, 2025, Waukesha County Public Health, a division of Waukesha County Health & Human Services, will host the inaugural Community Health Partner Summit at Waukesha County Technical College (WCTC). The day-long event will convene local leaders, organizations and changemakers from across sectors to connect, collaborate and co-create healthier outcomes for our community.

WHAT: Waukesha County Community Health Partner Summit

WHERE: WCTC – Anthony J. Natalizio Center, Waukesha, WI

WHEN: Tuesday, November 11, 2025, 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

WHO: More than 300 community health & well-being champions including local public health officials, healthcare system leaders, nonprofit and business partners, municipal stakeholders, and other collaborators committed to improving health across Waukesha County.

WHY:

- To provide clarity around the county's health priorities; mental health, substance use, and healthy aging and how organizations can actively support those efforts
- To facilitate new connections and partnerships across sectors, enabling more aligned and impactful community health work.
- To offer practical tools, frameworks and real-life examples that organizations can bring back and apply in their own settings.

MEDIA OPPORTUNITIES:

- Interview opportunities with summit leadership and speakers (names and times to be confirmed)
- Coverage of networking & resource-table area featuring partner organizations
- B-roll and photo-ops of participants engaging in breakout sessions, keynote presentations, and the closing networking forum

This summit marks a milestone in Waukesha County's public-health transformation to Chief Health Strategist, emphasizing a shift toward convening cross-sector partnerships, leveraging data, and aligning community resources for collective impact.
