Waukesha County Park System's Beaches open June 1

Waukesha County Park System's six beaches will open on Saturday, June 1 for the summer. Come play Frisbee, grill out, get a tan, or just relax and go swimming. The possibilities are endless, so Get Outside, Get Active!

Enjoy the beach at Fox Brook Park in Brookfield, along the 25-acre lake. It offers a diving dock, beach house, pedal boat rentals and concession stand. Menomonee Park has a 16-acre lake with a diving dock, beach house and concessions stand. Minooka Park, in Waukesha, offers a four-acre pond with a beach house. Enjoy the view of the 16-acre spring fed pond at Mukwonago Park from the beach and beach house. Muskego Park offers a two-acre swimming pond, beach house and concession stand. Naga-Waukee Park offers many possibilities for summer fun with its boat launch, picnic areas, concession stand and beach along Nagawicka Lake.

NEW beach hours are from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. everyday, with lifeguards on duty daily. County Park entrance fees are $4.00 daily. Beach use is included in the park entrance fee. Annual park entrance stickers are available for $28.00 for county residents, $38.00 for non-county residents and $14.00 for senior citizens.

The following are the Waukesha County beach locations:

- Fox Brook Park, 2925 North Barker Road, Brookfield
- Menomonee Park, W220 N7884 Townline Road, Menomonee Falls
