WAUKESHA — A replica Nakajima B5N "Kate" torpedo bomber warms up on the ramp at Waukesha County Airport on Tuesday. The aircraft is part of the Commemorative Air Force Tora! Tora! Tora! demonstration team, which re-enacts the attack on Pearl Harbor at air shows using planes originally created to portray Japanese aircraft in the 1970 movie "Tora! Tora! Tora!" The team stopped in Waukesha on its way to Oshkosh for the Experimental Aircraft Association AirVenture.

A replica Aichi D3A "Val" taxis to the runway on Tuesday at the Waukesha County Airport.

A formation consisting of a replica Aichi D3A "Val" dive bomber and two Nakajima B5N "Kate" torpedo bombers flies over Waukesha on Tuesday.

'Tora, Tora, Tora' aircraft at airport

WAUKESHA — Aircraft from the Gulf Coast Wing of the Commemorative Air Force in a hangar at the Waukesha County Airport. They are replica aircraft built for the movie "Tora, Tora, Tora" and currently flown to recreate the Dec. 7, 1941, attack by the Japanese on Pearl Harbor at air shows. The team will be performing in Oshkosh next week as part of the EAA Airventure. Weather permitting, the team will take off for Oshkosh on Tuesday at 1 p.m. and fly in formation over the airport before flying to Oshkosh.
