

Introducing receipt vault for your health savings account (HSA)

It's an easy, online way to keep your receipts organized.

This helpful tool allows you to upload and store images of receipts for your qualified medical expenses. Receipt vault gives you a safe and secure place to save your medical expense receipts for as long as you have an Optum Bank HSA. You no longer have to worry about receipts getting lost or ruined. Once you save your receipts in receipt vault, you'll be able to pull them up anytime through a computer, tablet or smartphone.

Why use receipt vault?

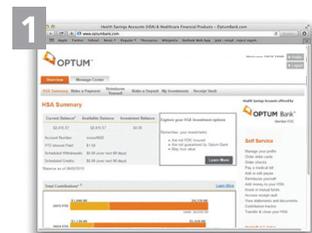

The IRS can audit your HSA. So you need to save your receipts and show they are for qualified medical expenses. By using receipt vault, you can track and search for expenses and use it as a storage file in case you need it for your taxes.

START TODAY!

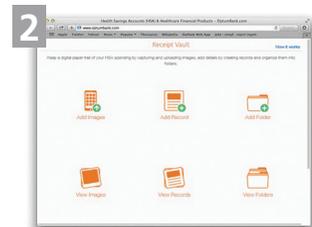

Log in to your account at optumbank.com and go to the HSA summary page to get started.

GET ORGANIZED.

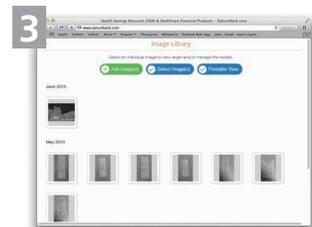

Log in to your account at optumbank.com and go to the HSA summary page to get started. From there, it's three easy steps:

Click on "Receipt Vault."

Use the main menu to upload new receipt images.

Use the image library to organize and categorize them.