Motorcycle Crash – Town of Lisbon

On September 5th, 2016, at approximately 2:22am, a Waukesha County Sheriff Deputy located a solo operator, single motorcycle crash at the intersection of STH 164 and Good Hope Road in the Town of Lisbon. The Town of Lisbon Fire Department responded to the crash and treated an unresponsive 51-year-old male from Atlanta, Georgia. Flight for Life Emergency Medical Air Transport was summoned and air transported the patient to Froedtert Hospital. The males condition is undetermined at this time.

The initial investigation indicates the motorcycle was northbound on STH 164, in the right turn only lane to proceed eastbound on Good Hope Road, when it failed to negotiate the right turn. The motorcycle was downed and the solo rider was separated from the motorcycle during the incident.

This crash remains under investigation by the Waukesha County Sheriff's Department.
