

OPEN HOUSE

WEDNESDAY, JULY 26TH

1PM—4PM

Located within The Health & Human Services Center

514 Riverview Ave., Waukesha, WI 53188

Phone: 262-548-7848

Other highlights include:

- State of WI Office for the Blind and Visually Impaired
 - Doug Martens will be offering two mini workshops on technology that's accessible, as well as low tech solutions for adapting to life with vision loss (limited seating, please sign up for your slot at the open house)
 - State of WI Office for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing
 - Mason Aumanstal will be offering two guided discussions focusing on technology and potential solutions to hearing loss difficulty (limited seating, please sign up for your slot at the open house)
 - Waukesha County ADRC Adult Protective Services Unit
 - Cassandra Dawson will be offering two mini-workshops on Guardianship in Waukesha County (limited seating, please sign up for your slot at the open house)
 - Independence First
 - Cindi Pichler will be displaying adaptive equipment and other resources
 - Waukesha County Public Health Department
 - Offering free glucose and cholesterol screens, and blood pressure checks
 - Free hand massages will be offered
 - Light refreshments will also be available catered by Lily Works
- Thanks to the following agencies for their contributions to this event:

Focus On ~~DISABILITY!~~

The 2017 ADRC Open House will focus on our services and community resources for those with ~~disabilities~~.

Join us for an informative panel discussion from 1:30-2:30pm with an emphasis on Education, Recreation, and Employment featuring:

John Ruf

Pewaukee's own, Sailor of a one-person keelboat (2.4 Meter) and 2008 Beijing Paralympic Games Bronze Medalist

Colleen A. Gonzalez

Coordinator of Student Accessibility at Waukesha County Technical College to highlight academic support in assisting students with different abilities

Natalie Braden

Former Waukesha County Technical College Student to highlight her experience as a college student utilizing academic support

Edward Sheehy

Creative Community Employment Opportunities job developer to highlight employment opportunities available for individuals with different abilities

