

Coaches

Fred Berry

Fred played 12 years professionally and has amassed over 1000 points in his career. His stops included Detroit, Kansas City, Kalamazoo and Toledo before making his way here to play for the Milwaukee Admirals. He still holds several scoring records for the Admirals, and as a result of a long and successful career, his #14 jersey was retired and now hangs in the rafters of the Bradley Center. He has coached 7 youth State Championship teams so far and continues to coach youth hockey.

Fred owns and operates the Hockey Haven Superstore

Josh Engel

Josh's career includes junior hockey and playing for the Wisconsin Badger NCAA championship team. After college, Josh went on to play four years of professional hockey. Josh started playing pro in the ECHL for the Gwinnett Gladiators where he soon got called up to play in the AHL for the Toronto Marlies. During the 2010/2011 season, he was the leading goal scorer for a defenseman on the Marlies.

Josh has been coaching the 2002 Jr. Admirals since the 2012 season.

Coaches

Peter Dale

Peter has spent over 20 years dedicated to teaching kids and adults positive, long term habits in sports and life through hockey. Through his talent and a 5 1/2 acre converted farm training facility he focuses on four key areas of training: skills, fitness, mental toughness and nutrition.
